   Re: Griffith v. OneBeacon Insurance Company, et. al.

Dear Kathleen:

   Thank you for your letter confirming Ms. Griffith's appointments with Dr. Waxman on June 15 and 22, 2005 at Dr. Waxman's office in Waban, Massachusetts.

   As I advised in my June 3 and June 8, 2005 letters, Ms. Griffith's appointments with Dr. Waxman are not to be recorded, and no persons other than Dr. Waxman and Ms. Griffith are to be present. Because this is not a deposition, the federal rules guarantee no right to record the sessions, and Dr. Waxman has advised us that he will not permit the sessions to be recorded.
   Ms. Griffith's June 15 and June 22, 2005 appointments with Dr. Waxman will go forward as scheduled with no tape recording and no persons other than Ms. Griffith and Dr. Waxman present unless the Court directs otherwise. As previously discussed, should Ms. Griffith fail to appear for either appointment, Dr. Waxman's charge for the full four hour session will be forwarded to you for payment.

   It has come to my attention that directions to Dr. Waxman's office were not included with my last letter. The directions accompany this letter.
